Stone Mountain.

Editors Constitution: I am much pleased to see by your paper of this morning that some interest is taken in a scientific development of Stone Mountain, and hope that the effort of Mr. Jones will lead to a complete examination of that great natural curiosity.

With the view of provoking further inquiry, I would respectfully suggest that Mr. Jones is mistaken in supposing the rude rock wall he refers to was erected for military purposes. To an engineer it would, in the absence of its real history, appear to be simply a retaining wall for an earthen road or pathway. The dirt which no doubt once formed the path having been washed away, leaves the wall as it now is without a single feature suggestive of military occupation. A party occupying it would not only have their rear closed, but also their flanks, and be completely at the mercy of an enemy who could avail themselves of other near and undefended approaches.

The sinks at and near the top of the mountain, as described by Mr. Jones, have always appeared to me to be the result of fires kindled as signals, or for cooking or sacrificing purposes. Their size indicates this. The heating of a stone on which a fire is made expands its surface, and detaches a layer more or less thick, according to the heat produced. This and the decomposition of the stone was facilitated by the rain falling on it, or, it may be, by the sudden application of water used to extinguish the fires. This operation, often repeated, will of course produce just such cavities as are referred to. The operation of heat on the side of the mountain as I have noticed has the effect of producing layers of various thickness, nearly parallel to the surface exposed, and hence the facility with which the rock at the Mountain is quarried. The head referred to is that of the sun.

As to the height of the mountain Mr. Jones and others, fix it at 3,000 feet, but do not say above what—the level of the Georgia Railroad or the Atlantic ocean. I have heard it estimated as low as 1,000 feet above the railroad, but to the eye it appears to be higher than that. It seems a little queer that a matter so easily and cheaply determined should so long be left to guess work. The Stone Mountain people owe it to themselves to be able to tell visitors exactly the size of their chunk of stone. Any one can see that it is of right smart size, and for all the information they, the visitors, get at the Mountain, they are obliged to be content with the impression that it is really a "big thing."

A complete topographical and geological survey of the Mountain would be a very desirable contribution to many of our scientific institutions.

Conundrums.

Why is a pig a provident animal? Because he always carries a spare rib about him.

Why is a stylish young lady like a letter? If she has not the stamps she is rejected by males.

When may a man be said to be literally immersed in business? When he is giving a swimming lesson.

North Georgia Female College.

Editors Constitution: The examination of the pupils of the North Georgia Female College was concluded on Wednesday, 12th inst. There were classes examined in Algebra, Geometry, Latin, French and Astronomy. The exercises were varied by music, vocal and instrumental.

Songs by Misses Spratt and Cannon, both young ladies, evincing the possession of great compass of voice and richness of tone in singing.

Instrumental pieces were rendered by Misses Richards, Lee and Camerer, all of whom performed admirably.

The music department is under the direction of Professor Steel, and, judging from the proficiency of his pupils, he is certainly a fine instructor in the science and art of music. The venerable Dr. J. S. Wilson was present, and examined a class in Horace, and also one in astronomy.

The North Georgia Female College is under the direction of Professor A. J. Haile and his accomplished lady, together with an efficient corps of teachers.

The various classes that were examined acquitted themselves to the entire satisfaction of the large and intelligent audience present, the young ladies showing themselves to be perfectly familiar with the subjects upon which their minds had been engaged. For myself, I must be permitted to say, that in a long experience as teacher and examiner, I have never witnessed so satisfactory an examination before.

Mr. and Mrs. Haile teach, and the consequence is, their pupils learn. There is no humbug in their College.

SENEX.

A Sure Cure for the Dysentery.

Editors Constitution: Believing that there are many cases of this fearful disease, especially among children, in this community please give place to this remedy. It is as follows:

A spoonful or two of pure, raw wheat flour, thinned with water so it can be easily drank. Three or four doses, taken at intervals of ten or twelve hours, will cure any case not absolutely chronic; and from what I have witnessed, I feel sure it is one of the best remedies in the world for chronic diseases. To make the dose palatable for children, it can be sweetened and flavored with some drops not acid.

Some forty years ago the dysentery prevailed throughout the Northern States to an alarming extent killing thousands; and in the midst of it some one published this remedy, which was everywhere adopted and worked like a charm curing thousands, and I now, an old man, have known hundreds of cases cured by it since. It seems to have the effect to check the disease and at the same time restore the inner coating to the bowels, which the doctors tell us is lost by the disease.

The Capital of Ireland.

A correspondent of the Boston Daily Globe, in the course of a letter to that paper from Dublin, gives the following account of the city:

"Can you imagine a city of 260,000 inhabitants that has comparatively no noise, no teams in the streets, no smoke, no hurry, no manufactures? Yet such is Dublin. Sackville street at mid-day, one of the grandest thoroughfares in Europe, looks like Broadway, New York, at about two o'clock in the morning—that is, the streetway looks like it, for that is the only time to get Broadway clear of coaches and teams. But the sidewalks of Sackville street are very lively and very fashionable. They are not like the jostling sidewalks of New York or Boston; the sidewalks of Sackville street are nearly as wide as Washington street, Boston, and the promenading ladies, and 'swells' from the Castle or the garrison, are never obliged to elbow their way in the approved fashion of an American city. The immense width of the street is silent and empty, except only for an occasional pigeon looking for wheat or a sparrow looking for a worm.

"Just think of a worm in Broadway. Ugh! the thought is unbearable; but in Sackville street—in the very center of it—I am sure that some silly sparrow, not knowing things by their aspects, often gulps an old gray-headed worm in mistake for his youngest son. 'Gray-headed worm' is a style of metaphor peculiarly suited to a description of an Irish street, for there's something of a 'bull' in it, and something suggestive of a dreary and hopeless wilderness.

"There are at all times plenty of cars in Sackville street—but they are not moving; they are standing still in a long line, close together, out in the center of the great street. The raw-boned horses are generally munching 'wisps' of hay, which lies on the ground before them; and the good-humored driver is lolling half asleep on the cushioned seat, calmly waiting for a 'fare,' his whip across his breast and all his ready repartee couchant and ready for a spring. Nelson's pillar, a fine monument, stands in the center of Sackville street, and in line with it is 'the carstand.' Perhaps some of your readers are under the impression that I'm writing all this about vehicles of the family of the American street-car. Far from it; I speak of the jolliest, easiest, hold-on-tightest, fling-you-off-going round-corners sort of locomotion in the world the Irish jaunting-car."

R., killing outright Mr. "Rat" Sliter, formerly an engineer on the B. & A. R. R., and also the fireman. Several others were severely wounded—among them a young lady in a house near the depot. Mr. Sliter had a number of personal friends in this community, who will be pained to learn the sad news.—Seaport Appeal.

The menagerie and aquarium tents of John Robinson's circus were blown down and the wagons tilted over, while the tents were full of people. Several persons were injured, but not seriously. The crowd of terribly frightened people, in a drenching pelting storm, and amid the upturned cages of roaring and shrieking animals, presented a wild and most appaling scene.

During the storm the lighting struck in a half dozen places within the corporate limits. A number of frames of unfinished buildings, and many trees, were blown down.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:
FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1872.

TO LAWYERS.—A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are indispensable. Rejected communications we cannot undertake either to return or preserve.

☞ The Augusta Constitutionalist has not taken down the names of Greeley and Brown. Its last issue contains the names.

The Constitution.

While in Atlanta, we called in the office of this sterling newspaper and had a pleasant interview with one of the proprietors and Colonel Avery.

We have been much pleased with the manly, yet conservative course pursued by this paper, and it is deservedly popular with the people. We regard it as one of the best papers published in the State, and unquestionably the most enterprising and live journal ever published in Atlanta. We are glad to see enterprise, labor and pluck liberally supported by the country. We need a great, leading paper at the capital of the State.—Gwinnett Herald.

Call for Democratic Meeting in Fulton to Nominate Delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

ATLANTA, GA., June 1, 1872.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Fulton county, this day assembled, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Fulton county are hereby requested to meet in Mass Convention at the City Hall on Saturday the 15th instant, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of selecting six delegates to represent the Democratic party of Fulton county in the State Convention to be held in this city on the 26th instant.

T. W. J. HILL,
Chairman of Democratic Ex. Com.
JNO. F. EDWARDS, Secretary.

Wise Words.

The Richmond Enquirer, strongly anti-Greeley, thus sensibly talks:

"We regret that any Conservative or Democrat should allow his temper to so far get the better of his judgment as to lead him to declare he will vote for Grant if Greeley should receive the indorsement of the National Democratic Convention. We know there is not one who, when the time for voting arrives, will do anything of the kind; and such declarations only impair their influence for good with the people. Let us be guided by reason in this matter. To all who take this very extreme view, as well as to that equally indiscreet class, who insist that they will vote for Greeley whether the Baltimore Convention shall indorse him or not, we say—be calm. Don't make any rash declarations so far in advance. If we go into the Convention, let us abide by its decision.

The Speaking Last Night.

The late hour at which the speaking at the capitol was over last night precludes any extended notice of the speeches. Judge Stephens and General Toombs were the speakers. Judge Stephens was dispassionate and argumentative. His speech will be given this afternoon.

General Toombs' speech will be found in another column. It is short enough for us to give before going to press, and bitter enough to inflame the passions of a set of Quakers. If anything could destroy the harmony of a great party, a large part of whose most honored members have urged a course or promised a contingent support to a course it would be the denunciatory characterization bestowed upon that course, and the individuals honestly advocating it, such as Mr Toombs last night gave to all Democrats who have championed Greeley support by the Democracy either directly or contingently.

Surely we have come to a bad pass when political discussions are thus to be conducted by our most distinguished leaders. It can in no possible way do good, and only intensify the heat of political strife, and reduce political discussion to abusive personal harangues.

How the States Move.

Each State is entitled to twice the number of delegates to the Baltimore Democratic Convention that it has Representatives and Senators in the Federal Congress.

The Convention will therefore consist of 734 delegates.

Thirteen States have held their Democratic Conventions, and appointed delegates to Baltimore, numbering 308. These States are:

Kansas—For Greeley	10
Iowa—For Greeley	22
Indiana—For Greeley	30
Florida—For Greeley	8
South Carolina—For Greeley	14
Tennessee—For Greeley	24
Vermont—For Greeley	10
Missouri—For Greeley	30
West Virginia—For Greeley	10
New York—For Greeley	70
Louisiana—For Greeley	16
Pennsylvania—For Greeley	58
	302
For a straight ticket:
Delaware	6
	308

Of the Pennsylvania delegation two are reported for a straight out nomination. Pennsylvania says nothing in her platform, but it is stated, and undenied, that her delegation was to go for Greeley.

The New York delegation is to use its judgment in going for Greeley, if it is the best that can be done.

Two of the Louisiana delegation are reported for a straight ticket.

The remaining States express a preference for the Greeley ticket.

Another Speech at Representative Hall.

ATLANTA, GA., June 13, 1872.

Hon. H. P. Farrow:

DEAR SIR: At an informal meeting of a few of your political friends, the undersigned were instructed to invite you to address the people of Atlanta upon the political issues of the day, at such time as will suit your convenience, in the Representative Hall, the use of which has been kindly granted for the occasion.

JAS. L. DUNNING,
VOLNEY SPAULDING,
W. C. MORRILL,
Committee.

ATLANTA, GA., June 13, 1872.

To Messrs. James L. Dunning, Volney Spaulding and W. C. Morrill, Committee:

GENTLEMEN—Your communication of this date, asking in behalf of some of my political friends that I address the people of Atlanta on the political issues of the day, has been received. Thanking you and those for whom you spoke for this manifestation of regard, I have to say that, if desirable, I will address the people as requested at 8½ o'clock, P. M., Saturday, 15th instant.

Most obediently yours, etc.,
HENRY P. FARROW.

Mr. Stephens Again.

The reply of Mr. Stephens, in yesterday's Sun, to our last article, calls for the correction of a misunderstanding under which he labors. He says he did not say that we did not deny what we styled his "aspersion against our sincerity," but what he did say was that we did not deny the fact of the alleged aspersion. We did deny it, as we meant to deny it. We deny it in toto. We have not endeavored to induce support of Mr. Greeley while avoiding the avowal of it. We have urged that the Democracy should support Mr. Greeley if the party declared for him, but we have not urged the Democracy to declare for him for the reason that we have not come to the conclusion that it was the proper thing. And so far from declaring for Mr. Greeley, we have said that there were two considerations to be settled before it ought to be done—one, that the Democracy cannot succeed on a straight ticket, the other, that Greeley must show enough Liberal Republican strength to make victory certain.

Mr. Stephens seems unable to understand our giving impartially the facts and arguments on both sides. His paper gives nothing but what supports his own views. We give our reader the benefits of all sides. And as the current has been for Greeley, and there has been more to report for than against him, our neighbor falls into the delusion that we are purposely pushing Greeley's cause, when we are simply reporting news and opinion.

We have not seen the action of a single county given in the Sun, unless especially requested, that was not on its own line. And, in some cases, as in the case of Troup county, and Murray county, we believe, he did not report the county action, though asked to do so in the official report of the county meeting. We have given fully and fairly the action of every single county. We have not seen a single communication or fact in the Sun's columns touching anything but a straight nomination; while all classes of Democrats have had a fair hearing in our columns, and we have tried to keep the people posted upon the political news.

Let our neighbor stick to his one-sided schedule of Democratic news-giving, as he thinks best. It is his right. But let him not incorrectly judge us because we run a more liberal policy.

Mr. Stephens now acknowledges that we have in the past struck some good blows for Democratic principle, and is kind enough to use the word "gallantly" in application to us. But though we are daily pitching into the infamous Radical Ku-Klux measures and urging every Democratic principle, he submits:

"If he is not now daily failing to do so, when he silently (to put it no stronger) sees a most active movement in the country to elect to the Presidency of the United States, Mr. Greeley, who holds all of these Radical abominations mentioned by him, not only to be constitutional, but rightful, proper, and expedient in themselves—he, Mr. Greeley, having approved every one of them."

The difficulty with Mr. Stephens is this. He seems unable to understand that some of us, his Democratic friends, honestly take a different view of Greeley's status from his own. We look from a different stand point. We regard Mr Greeley as having discarded his central heresies, and as standing upon a platform with those important planks in it for which Democrats have so long been fighting, viz: Local self-government instead of centralization, the sanctity of the habeas corpus instead of its disregard, freedom of elections instead of bayonet control of them by the national authorities, and subordination of the military to the civil authority instead of subjection of the civil tribunals to the imperial caprice of the despotic soldier.

Mr. Stephens argues that Greeley still sticks to his old heresies. But we argue differently. We take Mr. Greeley's word that he is for the Democratic batch of doctrine on this subject. And thinking differently, while Mr. Greeley is not an acceptable candidate, yet if the Baltimore Convention, instructed by the aggregate Democratic sentiment, thinks him the most available candidate to rivet Democratic principle upon the Administration of the National Government, we shall support the movement with all of our zeal.

Mr. Stephens again fails to answer the complaint that his course has tended to disintegration of the party. He says that our quotations from him, showing his liberality, refute the complaint. In frankness they do not, unless they are adhered to, and those other complained-of positions of Mr. Stephens yielded. If he adheres to both, as they are in conflict, one does not answer the other. His liberal views show that we have gone no farther than he, while he has taken us to task for our own liberalism no greater than his own. If we have favored an alliance with Liberal Republicans, so has he. If we have expressed willingness to support a Liberal Republican candidate, Greeley, so has he the man Davis. If we have abandoned principle, so has he. Our quotations from him show that when he attacks us he assaults himself.

And these liberal quotations from him do not refute, silence or have anything to do with those other declarations that we and others have complained of as setting the terrible example of disintegration, viz: clamoring for men to speak out, whether ready or not, under menace that waiting was treason; inviting Democrtas to a conference, whose result he would not abide unless his will was done; resolving to bolt if others' views were adopted; and inciting bad feeling by a derogatory characterization of good men for willingness to support Greeley, when he has offered to support Greeley's coadjutor, Davis.

Mr. Stephens seeks to show a difference between Davis and Greeley. We see none. They both stand together on the same platform, supporting the same Liberal Republican principles. They have both been long time Radicals, both have supported bad measures, both have objectionable antecedents. Greeley has been a little more active in his Radical rascalities, but Davis has been Radical enough to stick to the party and fatten on public office, which he still holds, through his Radicalism. If you go to raking in the past, the whole tucking of them will be found soiled enough.

What we have to do is with their present status, and are they men of personal honesty and competency. Davis and Greeley stand together, as we understand it, on the Cincinnati platform, which, barring the plank about the amendments, has good enough Democratic doctrine for anybody. They are both honest and capable men. If, as has been reported, Davis is now for Grant, then Greeley is the best man of the two.

Mr. Stephens says:

"Should not Democrats every where, without any more wrangling or disputing among themselves, stand to their 'own colors' and in solid phalanx shoulder to shoulder—fight ever for those principles on which alone free institutions were founded, and on which alone they can be maintained and preserved?"

We say most heartily, yes. This has been the burden of our entreaty all the time.

He adds in conclusion:

"If our neighbor is of this spirit, and will thus charge the enemy, he may be assured he will find in us a most cordial co-operator and ally, without the slightest feeling of ill-will or ill-temper on account of anything he has said in this or any other controversy between us. We have said nothing in anger, nor have we been angered at all by anything said by him. A great crisis is upon us. The liberties of the country, as we have proclaimed for years, are in imminent danger, and we will hail as brethren all who will join in their rescue upon those principles upon which alone they can be saved and perpetuated."

Every word of this we can endorse. This spirit will keep the great brotherhood of Democrats a united, and make it an invincible, army to crush out Radicalism.

The Man on Horseback.

There was nothing more significant in the Philadelphia Convention than an incident that took place during the progress of the performance there. After Grant had been renominated—as per order—a drop scene at the back of the stage was unrolled, and on the broad canvass was painted what the New York Times modestly describes as "an equestrian portrait of General Grant." Such, in point of fact, it was. But it was not Grant in the garb of a civilian, but in full military costume, booted and spurred. It was, in short, "the man on horseback" whose coming many thoughtful men have declared to be inevitable, as the result of those usurpations of power which have already broken down the barriers of the States and brought the Federal Constitution into contempt.

This suggestive picture, foreshadowing and in effect, plainly intimating what yet may come to pass, was greeted with frantic applause, and as the band, with delicious appropriateness, began to play "Hail to the Chief!" "Cheers surged through the building, peal upon peal, great waves of sound that overflowed the walls, and were caught up by the vast multitude without, and came roaring back, increasing in volume through every open door. Hats, canes, handkerchiefs, were waved, and the cheers, dying away from exhaustion were renewed again and again."

After the call of the States, which resulted in the choice of General Grant as the candidate of his office-holders, and it was found, as one of the correspondents innocently says, that "there was not a dissenting vote from the tier where the band stood, a stirring campaign song was sung, which deepened and aroused the excited audience. 'John Brown' was called for and sung with tremendous effect, every voice of the thousands joining with and swelling the martial and inspiring hallelujah chorus. Colonel Church, of Montana, who sang the 'Red, White and Blue' at Chicago, when Lincoln was nominated came to the stage and sung that, and 'Marching to the Sea' with thrilling effect. When he came to the line,

"How the darkies shouted when they heard the joyful sound."

A Georgia delegation emphasized the words by a series of excited yells."

What more fitting close could there possibly have been to this remarkable scene of well feigned and well acted enthusiasm—all done so nicely to order—than a reference to the "darkies," followed by "a series of excited yells," from "a man and a brother," translated from the cotton field to the Legislature and duly imported from Georgia, to give zest and color to the occasion? It was entirely worthy of the first pictorial representation of the real "man on horseback," and significant of the devotion of his hired adherents.—Baltimore Gazette.

Travels in Japan, China and India.

We are permitted to publish the following interesting private letter from a lady traveling in the East to her husband in Atlanta. It will repay perusal.

PT. DE GALLE, CEYLON, May 28, 1872.

You will not be surprised to learn that I am on this Island so famous for precious stones, spices and tropical fruits.

By dint of hard work we succeeded in doing Japan, China and the East Indies quite satisfactorily. I was in China full as long as I wished to be. We visited Canton, Wampoa, Honan, Hong Kong, and Saigore, the latter in Cochin China. We also made a trip to Shanghai and Northern China occupying about twelve days.

Shanghai is the most important business point in Northern China, if not in the whole Empire. Canton is the largest of all the Chinese cities visited. Some where I have read that the idea of the Chinese eating rats, cats and dogs was a story invented by travelers. I can assure you it is no story, but a matter of fact, for I have seen all these exposed for sale in the markets of Canton.

Yeddo, in Japan, is a city full as large or larger than Canton; but while the people of Yeddo appear cleanly in their habits, the Chinese, in Canton, impress me as being terribly filthy.

Many of the streets of Yeddo are wide, but those of Canton are all narrow; and such a thing as a wagon or carriage is not known, neither could it be used in the latter city.

The Temple of Sheba at Yeddo is one of the largest and most beautiful structures I ever saw. The temples in Canton are numerous, and many of them very large, but there is nothing about them pleasing to me. One temple has five hundred images, and is called the Temple of Five Hundred Gods. These images are of the most fantastic shape, and horrid form imaginable. Some have three heads; some six; some have one hand and arm, while others are adorned with six. In the Temple of Honan I saw sixteen large fat hogs, and was told that these were sacred, each containing the spirit of some departed priest.

More than fifty thousand of the inhabitants of Canton live in little boats. As a rule, I discovered that while men worked on these boats, the commander of each little craft was always a woman. What do you think of that for "woman's rights."

At Singapore, in Malacca, we called upon our American Consul, Major Studer, who kindly invited us to make his place our headquarters while there. Poor fellow! how I did pity him—in this tropical clime, working so faithfully and hard for the United States, and getting such small pay that he is compelled to leave his family in Switzerland, and lead a lonely bachelor life. The Major sent you a Malacca cane, which I shall try to get to you in due time.

Singapore is by far the most tropical of all places I have visited, being but a few miles from the equator. Here we find the delicious mangostein, mango, pine-apple, cocoanut, and bread-fruit, all growing in absolute perfection. It will astonish —— when I tell him that pine-apples, cocoanuts, and mangosteins are but a penny apiece, and other tropical fruits are proportionately cheap.

Our trip from Hong Kong to Ptde Galle, in Ceylon, on which we now are, was made on the French Mail Steamer Tigre, and had it not been for the extremely hot weather, I should have had no reason to complain on the score of comfort. But the heat has been terrible, and the voyage not a comfortable one. My general health has much improved. This island (Ceylon) is noted for its gems, especially for its rubies and sapphires.

As soon as a ship anchors, the gem merchants come on board to sell their gems, and where one genuine stone is sold at least two counterfeit ones are. A genuine sapphire can be bought here for ten dollars, that would cost fifty or sixty dollars in America.

To-day I rode out four miles to a cinnamon grove. The road is a beautiful one, running along the sea beach, and the coccanut trees line it so thickly as to give it a beautiful shade the entire distance. The natives of Ceylon are called Singalese. The men wear long hair, tied up in a knot at the back of the head, much after the style the ladies used to wear their hair in America.

I like the Singalese much better than the Chinese. They seem to be noble, and are considered reasonably honest.

In a few days I sail for Aden, in Arabia, and from there shall go on to Suez, Cairo and Alexandria, taking a look at Mount Sinai and the Pyramids as I pass along.

I shall date my next letter from Cairo—hoping to have plenty to tell you of that wonderful city.

OUR ILLINOIS LETTER.

The Terrible Tornado—Crops Damaged—The Germans for Greeley.

BUNKER HILL, ILL., June 10, 1872.

Editors Constitution: I have not seen a copy of THE CONSTITUTION in three weeks? What is the matter? Has my subscription expired? If so I will renew. I can't do without the paper. I should like much to see the last three issues of the weekly if you have them on file to spare.

Storms, tornadoes and hails have been the order of the day. Something dreadful must happen to this mundane sphere. Has Grant's nomination anything to do with it. Or is the day at hand when that fearful reckoning must come?

Crop prospects are gloomy enough. Prairies never before submerged, are several inches under water, and the corn is consequently damaged 100 per cent. Wheat has suffered more. Dixie will ship wheat this year to the granary of the Union. I assure you that a one-fourth crop cannot be made here. This state of things is not confined to a small belt of territory, but extends quite throughout the State. Greeley hats with Greeley heads to fill are as plenty as blackberries. The German vote here is almost a unit for the philosopher.

Pardon this rambling letter.

Respectfully,
CALHOUN.

Missouri Democracy for Greeley.

Destructive Tornadoes in New York and Massachusetts.

Destructive Floods near Prague—Appalling Loss of Life.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Numerous inquiries as to the exact status of the bill to refund the cotton tax have been received here. The bill is still pending before the committee on Ways and Means, and will report early next session. The friends of the bill claim that Congress has manifested a feeling favorable to its passage, by the defeat of the Morrill amendment, and prohibiting, by an almost unanimous vote, the exaction by the Secretary of the Treasury of the two cents per pound tax from the proceeds of cotton, awarded by the Court of Claims.

Senator Wilson, in his letter accepting the nomination, reviews the history of the Republican party, which, in the language of the Philadelphia Convention, he considers a National necessity. He gratefully accepts the nomination, and says, if the people ratify it, he will endeavor faithfully to fulfill its duties.

A circular has been issued from the Pension Office, saying that the amnesty act restores the right to hold office to those not excepted, but does not in any other respect relieve those who have been disloyal from any of the legal penalties, restrictions, or requirements consequent upon their disloyalty, or the presumption thereof. By this ruling, old pensioners are still excluded from the lists.

Probabilities.—The low barometer over Lake Ontario will move eastward over the New England States accompanied by brisk and possibly high winds with cloudy weather and rain. The latter will extend over the southern portion of the Middle States tonight with fresh to brisk southerly winds veering to northwesterly with cloudy weather and possibly areas of rain for the South Atlantic States, but thence westward to the lower Mississippi. Clear weather very generally with winds veering westerly. Clear and partially cloudy weather and light to fresh westerly to northerly winds from the Ohio Valley northward and westward. Cautionary signals continue at Cleveland and Buffalo and ordered for Rochester and Oswego.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Emil Andre, in a fit of jealousy, shot his wife dead this morning.

Three hundred strikers appeared before Steinway's Piano Factory to day, and threatened to tear it down. A force of fifty police ordered them off, and, on their refusal to retire, charged upon them, scattering them in all directions.

The funeral of the late James Gordon Bennett took place this morning from his late residence in Fifth avenue. Among the mourners were Mayor Hall, Horace Greeley, Judge Bedford, James Brooks and a host of other celebrities. The funeral ceremonies were performed by Vicar General Storrs, who spoke feelingly of the goodness of heart and charitable disposition of the deceased. The funeral cortege, which consisted of almost one hundred carriages, started from the late residence of the deceased at 11 A. M., preceded by a detachment of police, and passed down to Hamilton ferry on the way to Greenwood Cemetery. The streets along the route of the procession were lined with spectators—the flags throughout the city being at half mast.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 13.—In the Democratic Convention, the Committee on resolutions reported a long preamble setting forth that by the patriotism and sense of justice of the Liberal Republicans and by Democrats, Missouri has been redeemed from the tyranny and oppression of the Radical minority, and stating that the Liberals stand ready to do the same thing for the country at large; that they have already placed a ticket in the field to the support of which the Liberal Republicans and Democratic party are already committed; and that it would not only be unwise, but a wicked trifling with the dearest interests of the people, should the Democracy place another ticket in the field and thus ensure the election of Grant, and the continued oppression and plunder of the people and destruction of liberty and constitutional government throughout the country.

AUGUSTA, GA, June 13.—Augusta exchange is intended to facilitate transactions in cotton and grain produce for immediate and future delivery—especially for purchase and sale of Southern securities. Daily calls made of all Southern securities in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and Arkansas, embracing State, city, and railroad bonds, railway and manufacturing shares. The Exchange was organized under favorable auspices, and is now working successfully. The object is to make Augusta the Central market for Southern securities of every description.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 13.—A violent rain accompanied by a strong wind did much damage in this vicinity yesterday. At Port Jervis and Kingston, in this State, the gale was terrific. A school house was struck by lightning and one child killed and several stunned. There was a regular tornado in this county doing heavy damage to orchards, barns, fences, etc.,

BOSTON, MASS., June 13.—The gale last evening proved sadly destructive of life. Several persons were killed. In this vicinity buildings were damaged and trees shivered.

LEWISTON, ME., June 13.—Sidney Perham has been nominated for Governor.

LONDON, ENG., June 13.—Details of the floods near Prague, caused by the heavy rains, of which brief mention was made by telegraph on the 27th ult., show that the destruction of life and property was far greater than at first supposed. Water poured over the country, sweeping every thing before it; fertile districts were devastated, and a number of villages swept away. The loss of life is appalling—the number of persons who perished being estimated at seven hundred.

MADRID, SPAIN, June 13.—The difficulty in the Government was caused by King Amadeus disapproving measures which were adopted by the Cortez, and supported by the Cortez. The Ministry, as anticipated, have tendered their resignations.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

MADRID, SPAIN, June 13.—The journals of this city assert that a plan is in contemplation to unite the Carlists with the International organization in Spain, when an effort will be made by the combination to create disaffection in the army.

WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of this sterling company. The showing made is one not to be excelled. On the 31st of December, 1871, the actual assets, increasing and drawing interest, was $2,389,016 87. The total liabilities, including capital, $2,415,714 00. The invested surplus is $173,302 87.

Major J. F. Edwards and T. A. Chastain are the general agents for Georgia and Alabama. This reliable and staunch company has been fortunate in selecting agents of indomitable energy and well known integrity. We bespeak for them and their company a liberal share of public patronage.

V. A. GASKILL.—Yesterday Judge Linton Stephens read in open court an agreement between the State and V. A. Gaskill, in which V. A. Gaskill was to be discharged from all further liability to the State upon the payment of $8,000 and interest.

Judge Stephens said that, after a thorough examination of the evidence and consultation with counsel, with Governor Smith's approval, he was satisfied that the State could not make out the offense charged against Gaskill. He therefore desired that the indictment against Mr. Gaskill be nolle prosed. Judge Hopkins took the papers for examination before rendering a decision.

THE H. O. HOYT CASE.—The fourth day's proceedings in this case were commenced by the examination of W. L. Hedrick, who testified that he lived at Tunnel Hill; I furnished cross-ties and wood to the Western and Atlantic Railroad, during the year 1870; I received in August $16 40 for cross-ties, paid to me by Mr. Hoyt.

Did Mr. Hoyt pay you for 541 cross-ties?

No, sir; not in one lot; no one else paid me for ties, only the Auditing Board; they paid me for a large amount; the amount of 908 ties—$316 20—was paid by the board; also, a lot of 881 ties, that was paid by the Board.

On cross examination, (book shown to witness) who states, that is not my signature; I may have made a cross mark; that was sometimes the custom on the road for parties to do that, even where they could write. Here witness detailed the number of ties he furnished to the road during the year; ties were taken up sometimes by conductors on lumber trains; sometimes by section bosses. Conductor on one train was Charlie Davis, who took up at different times through the summer and till November. I don't recollect the amount or when he took them up. I put on the road altogether over eight thousand ties; some of the ties I put on the road were rejected; Davis rejected right smart; I mean Charlie Davis, the conductor of the lumber train; Mr Hoyt paid me for some ties at Tunnell Hill; he was on what is called the pay train; he first paid me for wood; then he paid me for forty-one cross-ties; there was some one assisting him; Mr. Hoyt counted out the money himself; I signed my name on the wood roll. (Large book shown to witness.) I did not sign there; that is not my signature; it was customary to touch the top of the pen in signing for receipt of money; sometimes I would write my name, sometimes I would make a mark; I hardly ever saw the amount, nothing but the pen. Mr. Hoyt paid a draft on Wm. Rich & Co, for me, amounting to $3 8, and he paid me seven dollars in money; that I find entered correctly in that book.

By direct examination by Judge Stephens. (Looking on book. Is this credit of $215 20 for ties correct?) This is not correct. I got only $16 40 for crossties from Mr. Hoyt. That is all I got to the best of my recollection; all the rest I got from the Auditing Board. Kendrick was sent round after the road was leased to take account of wood and crossties along the road. The 106 mile post is between Tunnel Hill and Buzzard Roost. I don't know any man near there by the name of S. Haney, nor M. Horn. I am pretty generally acquainted around there. I have been in the mercantile business in Dalton about three years. I don't know any Haney about there. I know of no S. Haney around there delivering wood during the year 1870. It was customary for parties from a distance to come and deliver wood and ties on the road during the winter. I was well acquainted with Charlie Davis. I don't think that any man of the name of S. Haney or M. Horn delivered any wood or crossties on the road near Tunnel Hill during 1870.

Thomas S Horn testified—I live at Tunnel Hill. That is one mile from the 106 mile post on the Western and Atlantic Railroad. I do not know any man of the name of M Horn there. I have lived around there twenty years. I am well acquainted around. I know no man of the name of S. Haney. There is a family living about three or four miles north of Tunnel Hill of the name of Haney. No one of that name delivered wood or cross ties at the 106 mile post. There is none of that family named S. Haney. I don't know any man named O. Nichols. During the years 1869 and 1870, I was very often about the 106 mile post. I furnished both wood and cross-ties to the road about there.

On cross examination—Witness states, I know a man at Dalton of the name of Nichols, but not O. Nichols. I know nearly all the neighbors around Tunnel Hill. During the year 1870 I delivered on the road 2,243 cross-ties between the 105 and 106 mile posts—that is, between Tunnel Hill and Dalton. I received for cross-ties $202 20. I delivered wood; I don't recollect how much; some three or four thousand cords. My recollection is that Mr. Hoyt paid me $202 50. I got money in August. I don't recollect if I signed my name or made a mark. I don't recollect that I touched the pen, though I might have done so. All the cross-ties I and Dr. Clemens furnished were 2 242 or 2,243. We were in partnership, but they were all returned in my name. That is the full number we put in. (I find recorded in this book T. S. Horn, 771 cross-ties at 40 cents—$308 40 audited) Yes, that is correct. The board paid me that; also for 212 cross-ties $84 80; yes, we got that from the board; at one time we had wood and cross-ties audited together; my recollection is that I received $1,443 65 for cross-ties and wood; my name appears on the books as Thomas Horn and as Thomas S. Horn; I was paid in both instances; I don't know O. Nichols; I have lived in and around Tunnel Hill about 20 years.

This witness was cross-examined at great length. Nothing further of importance was elicited.

John M. Austin, testified that he has been engaged on railroads in the various capacities of track boss, lumber train and freight conductor, since the year 1850; during the years 1868–69 was lumber train conductor on the Western and Atlantic Railroad; at that time there was a good supply of cross-ties on the road, at the end of the year 1869, larger than was usually kept on the road; About the first of October Superintendent Hulbert sent for me to go from Atlanta over the road to ascertain the number of ties that had been received along the line of the road; I believe at that time there were about 40,000; there was about the same number at the end of the year.

On cross-examination witness modified his estimate of the number of ties on the road at the end of the year 1869, by stating that it was between 25,000 and 40,000 certainly not less than 25,000; gives also his opinion that 800 cross-ties per mile would be sufficient to maintain the road in repair, that is so many per mile annually; witness described the mode of receiving ties, mode of distribution, etc.

Colonel R. M. Young testified to the amount of ties he had furnished to the Western and Atlantic Railroad during the year 1870. Very little was elicited from this witness against the defendant.

Larkin Nance testified that he lived on Mr. Hoyt's place, or near to it; that he had been in the employ of defendant during the year 1870; had hauled off defendant's land one hundred and forty-seven cross-ties. This was near the eighty-six mile post; that is, about one and one-half miles from Resaca station.

On cross-examination witness states that he knows of Mr. Hoyt having purchased ties from other people; has seen several piles of ties along the road, marked with his name, but does not know the number. Only know that he bought them from seeing his name on them. Can't tell the number; might be 300.

Hon. George Hillyer testified to the mode of examination before the Auditing Board, and that the book used in court was Mr. Hoyt's wood and cross-tie book; that the Board used the book to arrive at the truth of various accounts brought by parties who had claims against the road, but that the Board did not fully recognize it as being correct, as parties frequently disputed the amounts, and it was necessary to take testimony, and use every power in the means of the Board to arrive at the truth; that where accounts had been passed upon, the word "audited" was written to show that fact, but it was by no means a proof that that account was correct; that the Board had other records of their transactions; there were errors in the book both ways; when claims were presented that were properly approved and audited, we did not consider that we had any right to go behind that, unless there were circumstances leading to a suspicion of fraud.

Witness details at length the operations of the Board. The aggregate amount of money Hoyt received from the road for all purposes was $184,000. His claim for balance due to him was $6,269 90. On closely examining the books they did not show as much due to Hoyt by $2,000 to $3,000. By this means his claim was reduced to $4,405 08. Hoyt was present a great deal of the time when the Board was considering his matter.

No effort was made to attack the credits claimed by Hoyt. Hoyt acknowledged the book, and produced it as a consolidated report from his office.

The witness was subjected to a rigid cross examination by Gen. Gartrell, but nothing new elicited. The witness stated that Hoyt made no effort at concealment.

Alton Angier was introduced by the State for the purpose of proving a demand upon Hoyt. Gen. Gartrell objected to the introduction of the testimony. Pending the argument, court adjourned.

SPEAKING AT THE CAPITOL.—Judge Linton Stephens, last night, spoke at the Hall of the House of Representatives to a full house. We noticed many ladies out. He was frequently applauded during its delivery. As we will give the speech entire in our afternoon edition we will omit even a synopsis of it.

Hon. Robert Toombs responded to calls in one of his characteristic efforts.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: I am not in this programme. (Laughter.) I came here as a listener. I have not made a speech in public since 1868. I have been watching events, though. I am an outlaw. I am proud of my outlawry, (laughter,) and I thank the living God that I have lived to see just such a state of things, because we shall be able to sift the chaff from the wheat—we can find out all the true Democrats, chalk their back and kick the others out! (Laughter.) I stand upon the principles of public liberty which has been advocated for eight centuries by my ancestors—principles as good to-day as in 1217. I stand by free governments and the right of freemen to govern themselves.

You talk to me about your Grants and Mr. Greeleys, and all such stuff. I will beat them at the ballot box, or any other sort of box you choose. [Applause and laughter.]

Now, this is a very plain question—there is no trouble about it. Show me a man that tried to make a party out of the negroes, and I will show you a Greeley man. Show me a Bullock man that has turned Democrat, and I will show you a Greeley man—a thief that has robbed the State, and I will show you a Greeley man. Show me one of the Mitchell orphans, and I will show you a Greeley man. Show me a State Road lessee and I will show you a Greeley man; but show me an honest man and I will show you an anti-Greeley man!

Why, we have no questions with us. There is not a white Greeley man in the county of Wilkes, the old hornet's nest of the revolution.

I am glad we have got them all together. We will get the New Departurists, the Bullock men, the swindlers, the thieves, in one pile and then get rid of them.

As to Greeley and Grant, with one exception, I would support old John Brown's Ghost, if I could maintain Democratic principles and popular rights. I would support the devil in preference to either of them, because when you support the devil you support a very respectable antagonist. He is not a coward. He fought God Almighty a very respectable fight, and he fights Him a pretty tough fight till now—so the story goes in Revelation.

As to me I put my politics upon one section of Magna Charta. No man shall be imprisoned, found guilty or exiled unless by the decision of a judge, and the verdict of a jury according to the laws of the land. The laws that He makes, and I will accept laws from no other. So far as the Government of the United States is concerned, I am its enemy. I have trod under foot the flaunting lie a hundred times, and I trust to do it again. They are no friends of mine or of my country—they are no friends of liberty. What's the difference between these people? Grant's a soldier, a sort of fool, but he loves his friends, sticks to his kin, his kith. [Laughter.] But Greeley loves nobody—don't even love his wife and is a woman's rights man. He is a woman's rights man and I wouldn't vote for him for that if for no other reason. "That's the matter with Hannah." If the women only had the right kind of husbands there would be no women's rights women. [Laughter and Applause.] They say a great deal about his old white hat and old coat. His white hat is his greatest distinction.

I tell you one thing. I said to an Augusta man you abuse Atlanta. Why? Where did Bullock come from? From Augusta, my own District. Where did Conley and Blodgett and Eph. Tweedy come from? Why, from Augusta. And I hope we sent you all the rogues we had. They all gathered here in Atlanta, for where the carrion is the crows will gather. Bullock came, they came, more vultures. You did not raise one of them on your soil, but take the hard-fisted men of this town, and there is not a people in the world who show a magnanimity grander than the common men of Atlanta.

Now, fellow-citizens, I don't know where this is going to; with all reverence I say it, I leave it with God. I know my duty; to do justly, to maintain free government, to maintain public institutions, to fight all cowards and traitors, to stand on this grand old ship of the Constitution, and fight under the principles of eight centuries. It's true, [illegible] sought to bring her bottom in the Greeleys. Cast one into the sea; hang the other; do your duty; trust to God. What then? Let the storm come; let the robbers have charge of her; [illegible] succeed; nail to the mast the holy flag, and give her to the God of the winds, the lightning and the gale. [Vociferous applause.]

New Digest
—OF—
GEORGIA REPORTS,

From Vol. 1 to Vol. 40, Inclusive,

IN TWO VOLUMES

BY A. O. BACON.

THE above work is now in the press of Messrs. J. W. Burke & Co., and the first volume will be ready for delivery by June 20th. In it will be found, under its appropriate head, an accurate syllabus of each ruling of the Supreme Court. The syllabus in each case has been carefully compared with the decision, and where required, changes have been made in the text or a new syllabus added. This, however, has been done rarely, and only when necessary to make the syllabus a correct exponent of the ruling of the Court.

This Digest will contain many more subjects than the previous Digest, and also many more subdivisions of subjects. At the end of each subdivision will be found copious references so that with this book the practitioner will not only be able to refer readily to each ruling of the Court, but will also have [illegible] the [illegible] of the text of the headnotes, which the Supreme Court have said, "are made by the Judges." Whenever there was a dissenting Judge, or less than a full bench, this Digest shews the fact.

The book will be issued in the following styles, and at the prices named:

1. One copy, two volumes at $5 per vol $10 00
2. One copy, two volumes carefully inter-leaved throughout with good writing paper, at $6 per vol 12 00
3. One copy, two volumes bound in one 8 00

The superiority of the inter-leaved copies, it is unnecessary to point out to the Student or Practitioner, who appreciates the advantage of having by the side of the rulings of our Supreme Court references upon the same subject to our Statute Law, or to the rulings of the Courts of other States and of England. The single volume will be large and unwieldy, containing eleven hundred pages, and some copies of the work are issued in this form only that it may be within the reach of those who may not be able to buy the two volume copy. The price of the single volume may appear to be high, but it must be remembered that it contains two volumes in one, and on account of the large amount of matter contained in it, the price of the composition (type setting) will be more than twice as much as that of one of the volumes of the Georgia Reports; and the sale of such a book is practically limited to about one-half the lawyers in the State.

Orders to Messrs. J. W. Burke & Co. are respectfully solicited. A. O. BACON.

New Georgia Bonds for Sale.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE,
ATLANTA, GA., April 6th, 1872.

The 7 per cent. State bonds, authorized by an Act approved January 18th, 1872, and issued for the purpose of exchange or redemption of old State bonds of Georgia maturing this year, are now ready for disposal according to the provisions of the bill.

Quite a number have already been sold to Georgians at 90 cents, and an opportunity for a few weeks is offered to obtain them at the State Treasury office at the above price, or they will be exchanged for the old bonds falling due, rating the old bonds at par and the new bonds at 90 cents, the State paying a difference of 10 per cent. in cash.

These new bonds are desirable on several accounts:

1. They are issued in strict accordance with law.
2. No more are issued than barely enough to take up the old bonds maturing.
3. They are Redemption bonds, which are rated on the stock market as the very best class of securities.
4. The coupon interest will be paid promptly semi-annually, either in New York or the State Treasury.
5. They are exempt from State taxation.

Orders for purchase, or bonds for exchange can be sent to the State Treasurer in Atlanta, and will receive prompt attention.

There are strong reasons, for these new bonds being at par in a short time, and it is hoped Georgians will continue to show their appreciation, as has the highest Judicial officer of the State, by purchasing twenty-five thousand dollars for himself.

By the advice and approval of the Governor.

N. L. ANGIER,
State Treasurer.

INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM

—OF THE—

Georgia State College.

IT is proposed to establish in connection with the STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND THE MECHANIC ARTS, an INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM—to contain models of improved agricultural implements and machines, products of agriculture, products of manufacture, and the mechanic arts generally, representing as far as possible all industrial interests. This appeal is therefore made to the public, not alone to Georgians and the people of the South, but to all interested in Industrial Education, to aid us in this endeavor, by sending to the Museum of the State College whatever may illustrate Agriculture, Manufactures, or any of the Mechanic Arts.

We solicit models of machines of any character; models of bridges; plans and photographs of buildings, bridges, etc.; minerals, specimens of ores; specimens of woods; products of agriculture; products of manufactures, exhibiting as far as possible the various stages of preparation; and generally, whatever may illustrate the industrial arts.

Donations will be acknowledged by publication in the Catalogue. Direct all articles to PRESIDENT STATE COLLEGE, Athens, Georgia: marked "for Industrial Museum."

The authorities of the following Railroads, viz: Georgia, Western and Atlantic, Atlanta and West Point, and Central, with its connections, have generously offered to give free transportation to all articles designed for this Museum; and it is expected the other Railroads of the State will be equally liberal.

All newspapers favorable to the cause of Industrial Education are respectfully requested to publish this card. W. L. BROUN, President.

For the Constitution.

TO SUSY.

Soft as the moonbeams that rest on the fountain
The pure light of beauty smiles sweetly on thee,
Glad as the pure stream that leaps from the fountain
Thy spirit of mirth flashes sunny and free.

No shadow hath brought its dark spell to thy forehead,
No canker hath stolen the bloom from thy lips;
Thy charms are all nature's, thy beauty unborrowed:
Alas, that a shadow those charms should eclipse.

I have gazed on thee oft when the spell of the even'
To the meadow and valley imparted its charm,
When the blue of thine eye was a symbol of heaven
And the glow of thy beauty unripened was warm.

I have bowed to thee oft in the visions of slumber
And in fancy have prest thy sweet lips with delight.
The tone of thy voice as an heavenly number
Has burst on my senses by day and by night.

I would, dearest Susy, that beside a low altar
Unsinned and unsinning thy form stood by mine,
I would that thy lips tho' rejoicing would falter,
And thy cheek wear a blush as you whispered I'm thine.

Atlanta, Ga., June 12, 1872.

Humorous.

"How did you get rid of that troublesome lover of yours Carrie?" "I married him, and haven't been troubled with his attentions since."

The time to possess your soul in patience is when your hat blows off in the street and your eyes are too full of dirt to see which way it goes.

New married daught—"How long does the honeymoon last, mama?" Practical parent —"Until you ask your husband for money, my dear."

A band which serenaded a young married couple in a suburban town, an evening or two since, selected a peculiarly happy and flattering piece known as "The Monkey Married the Baboon's Sister."

A minister who thought that reporting sermons was all vanity, afterwards concluded that if the thing must be done it should be well done, and slipped a greenback into the reporter's hand, saying, "Do not condense me."

A witness under cross-examination who had been tortured by a lawyer for several hours, at last asked for a glass of water. "There," said the Judge, "I think you'd better let that witness go now as you have pumped him dry."

A toll keeper in Virginia was lately brought before a magistrate for cruelty to his daughter, occasioned by her allowing her lover to drive through the gate free, when she had charge of it. Like one of Shakespeare's heroines, "she never tolled her love."

Useful.

Bathing is not the only way in which a healthful action can be maintained. Dry friction over the whole surface of the body, once a day, or once in two days, is sometimes more serviceable than the application of water.

Avoid exposure to the outdoor air in miasmetic localities, for the hours including sunset and sunrise. Have a fire in the family room at those hours, to rarify and send the miasma upward. Take breakfast before going out of doors in the morning, and tea before sundown.

In the life of most persons a period arrives when the stomach no longer digests enough of the ordinary elements of food to make up for natural daily waste of the bodily sustenance. At this time tea comes in as a medicine to arrest the waste, and to keep the body from falling away so fast, and thus enables the less energetic powers of digestion still to supply as much as is needed to repair the wear and tear of the solid tissue.

Society and Fashion.

Blade grass hats are the latest loves for picnics.

The latest styles of ladies' shoes are made to button on both sides of the boot.

The habit of taking arsenic to beautify the complexion is on the increase among both sexes, in New York.

Coral necklaces have superseded all other kinds this spring, and the mania for the rose-tinted coral seems rather on the increase than otherwise.

Suits of plain colored lawns, usually trimmed with some harmonizing shade of the same goods, will be much worn for the street. Also linen polonaises, trimmed with black velvet guipure, to match the color of the linen, or linen fringe, are much in favor for everyday wear. These appear the best when worn over black silk skirts, although skirts of the same material as the polonaise are often seen.

Gleanings.

The capital invested in wine making in California is $31,000,000.

Twenty-four orphans of Burlington, Iowa, sadly console each other for the death of their father.

A Milwaukee widow of thirty-four was recently bowed with grief at the death of her seventh husband.

The weekly circulation of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper has increased over 10,000 copies since it began its earnest support for the Reform movement by pen and pencil.

New Yorkers complain of the milk nuisance, strike nuisance, meat nuisance, street dirt nuisance, car nuisance, sewer, sink and gas nuisances, and small pox nuisance.

BACHELORS' HAIR DYE.—This superb Hair Dye is the best in the world—perfectly harmless, reliable and instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints or disagreeable odor. The genuine Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces immediately a splendid black or natural brown, leaves the hair clean, soft, beautiful; does not contain a particle of lead or any injurious compound. Sold by all druggists. Factory, 16 BOND STREET, oct3—d1y New York.

THE cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivalled remedy. may14-d1m.

HAVE IT ALWAYS AT HAND.—Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and for this reason among many others, the Mustang Liniment should find a place in the cupboard of every household. In all the world there is nothing capable to it as an application for cuts, contusions, burns, spasms, and scalds, and when every other preparation that medical ingenuity can suggest, has failed to afford relief in rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, glandular swellings, muscular contractions, cramps, toothache, &c. this powerful anti-inflammatory and pain destroying agent immediately assuages the sufferer's agony and eventually accomplishes a radical cure. Probably there is not a connoisseur in horseflesh or an amateur horseman in the land who does not know, either from personal observation or reports that the Mustang Liniment is the supreme remedy for all external diseases and injuries of the horse. june11-deod1w&w1t.

CAUSELESS DEPRESSION.—This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be over-estimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative. june11-deod1w&w1t.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of said county:

YOUR petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, showeth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown) for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H Sells, W A S Rondeau and P H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 13th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1872; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the city of Atlanta, and being part of A J Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originally Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, one hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Butler street two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.

Your petitioner avers that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.

L. E. BLECKLEY,
June 7, 1872. Petitioner's Attorney.

On filing the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that the said mortgagor, Amy H. Sells, pay into court on or before the first day of the next term, to-wit, the second Monday in October next, the principal, interest and cost, or show cause why the equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises should not be forever barred and foreclosed; and that this rule be served as prescribed by law.

TO SUSY.

Soft as the moonbeams that rest on the fountain
The pure light of beauty smiles sweetly on thee,
Glad as the pure stream that leaps from the fountain
Thy spirit of mirth flashes sunny and free.

No shadow hath brought its dark spell to thy forehead,
No canker hath stolen the bloom from thy lips;
Thy charms are all nature's, thy beauty unborrowed:
Alas, that a shadow those charms should eclipse.

I have gazed on thee oft when the spell of the even'
To the meadow and valley imparted its charm,
When the blue of thine eye was a symbol of heaven
And the glow of thy beauty unripened was warm.

I have bowed to thee oft in the visions of slumber
And in fancy have prest thy sweet lips with delight,
The tone of thy voice as an heavenly number
Has burst on my senses by day and by night.

I would, dearest Susy, that beside a low altar
Unsinned and unstaining thy form stood by mine,
would that thy lips tho' rejoicing would falter,
And thy cheek wear a blush as you whispered I'm thine.

Atlanta, Ga., June 12, 1872.

Humorous.

"How did you get rid of that troublesome lover of yours Carrie?" "I married him, and haven't been troubled with his attentions since."

The time to possess your soul in patience is when your hat blows off in the street and your eyes are too full of dirt to see which way it goes.

New married daught—"How long does the honeymoon last, mama?" Practical parent—"Until you ask your husband for money, my dear."

A band which serenaded a young married couple in a suburban town, an evening or two since, selected a peculiarly happy and flattering piece known as "The Monkey Married the Baboon's Sister."

A minister who thought that reporting sermons was all vanity, afterwards concluded that if the thing must be done it should be well done, and slipped a greenback into the reporter's hand, saying, "Do not condense me."

A witness under cross-examination who had been tortured by a lawyer for several hours, at last asked for a glass of water. "There," said the Judge, "I think you'd better let that witness go now as you have pumped him dry."

A toll keeper in Virginia was lately brought before a magistrate for cruelty to his daughter, occasioned by her allowing her lover to drive through the gate free, when she had charge of it. Like one of Shakespeare's heroines, "she never tolled her love."

Useful.

Bathing is not the only way in which a healthful action can be maintained. Dry friction over the whole surface of the body, once a day, or once in two days, is sometimes more serviceable than the application of water.

Avoid exposure to the outdoor air in miasmetic localities, for the hours including sunset and sunrise. Have a fire in the family room at those hours, to rarify and send the miasma upward. Take breakfast before going out of doors in the morning, and tea before sundown.

In the life of most persons a period arrives when the stomach no longer digests enough of the ordinary elements of food to make up for natural daily waste of the bodily sustenance. At this time tea comes in as a medicine to arrest the waste, and to keep the body from falling away so fast, and thus enables the less energetic powers of digestion still to supply as much as is needed to repair the wear and tear of the solid tissue.

Society and Fashion.

Blade grass hats are the latest loves for picnics.

The latest styles of ladies' shoes are made to button on both sides of the boot.

The habit of taking arsenic to beautify the complexion is on the increase among both sexes, in New York.

Coral necklaces have superseded all other kinds this spring, and the mania for the rose-tinted coral seems rather on the increase than otherwise.

Suits of plain colored lawns, usually trimmed with some harmonizing shade of the same goods, will be much worn for the street. Also linen polonaises, trimmed with black velvet guipure, to match the color of the linen, or linen fringe, are much in favor for everyday wear. These appear the best when worn over black silk skirts, although skirts of the same material as the polonaise are often seen.

THE cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivalled remedy. may14-d1m.

HAVE IT ALWAYS AT HAND.—Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and for this reason among many others, the Mustang Liniment should find a place in the cupboard of every household. In all the world there is nothing capable to it as an application for cuts, contusions, burns, spasms, and scalds, and when every other preparation that medical ingenuity can suggest, has failed to afford relief in rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, glandular swellings, muscular contractions, cramps, toothache, &c. this powerful anti-inflammatory and pain destroying agent immediately assuages the sufferer's agony and eventually accomplishes a radical cure. Probably there is not a connoisseur in horseflesh or an amateur horseman in the land who does not know, either from personal observation or reports that the Mustang Liniment is the supreme remedy for all external diseases and injuries of the horse.
june11-deod1w&w1t.

CAUSELESS DEPRESSION.—This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be over-estimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of said county:

YOUR petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, sheweth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown) for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H Sells, W A S Rondeau and P H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 13th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1872; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the city of Atlanta, and being part of A J Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originally Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, one hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Butler street two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.

Your petitioner avers that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.

L. E. BLECKLEY,
Petitioner's Attorney.
June 7, 1872.

On filing the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that the said mortgagor, Amy H. HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Dr. Radway's

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

Has made the most astonishing Cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the Body undergoes, under the influence of this Truly Wonderful Medicine, that

EVERY DAY AN INCREASE IN FLESH AND WEIGHT IS SEEN AND FELT.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SASPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases. Eruptions, Fevers, Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakeinng and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Price $1 Per Bottle.

A GOOD HOTEL,

The undersigned flatter themselves that they are fully competent to discharge their obligations to their patrons. But they are not only experienced in hotel keeping—they modestly would claim to have

To all these important advantages is added a table that is well supplied with the best and choicest dishes the city and country can afford; nor would they omit to mention that their servants, trained to the business, have never been surpassed for politeness and attention to guests.
